Rekindle Romance and Happiness in Your Relationship

What Others Are Saying . . .

"It was such a pleasure to have Dr. Patty Ann speak with our clients today on our teleseminar! My colleagues and I work with parents who have children diagnosed with autism and other developmental disorders, and healthy relationships are so important for these parents. Dr. Patty Ann spoke from the heart and gave our clients practical insights and strategies to begin improving their relationships right away. We received excellent feedback ...including one parent who said that the information Dr. Patty Ann shared was exactly what she and her husband needed to hear at that moment. I proudly recommend Dr. Patty Ann's products and services to clients, and highly recommend her to people interested in improving their relationship with their spouse or significant other". - Nicole Beurkens,

"There are so many wonderful things I could say about Dr. Patty Ann - but the most important thing for anyone to know is that she will help you understand so much more about why you are where you are, why you are doing the things you're doing, and how you can make things better for your life and the people around you... Dr. Patty Ann's approach fits so many people- you immediately feel comfortable and at ease with her. I consider myself lucky to have her." - DM

"...There is no way that we can begin to express to you all that you have done for us, so we will only tell you "thank you". We will continue to tell friends and family in relationship trouble about your programs." - Sheila
